Benefit from a career in hospitality

Our popular SIT30616 Certificate III in Hospitality course delivered by our experienced, industry-expert, qualified educators will provide you with the knowledge and industry-ready skills for successful employment in a range of hospitality enterprises.

Businesses benefit from employees with this qualification and skills, in improved customer service, productivity and job satisfaction/reduced staff turnover.

The SIT30616 Certificate III in Hospitality is suitable for an Australian apprenticeship pathway.

The SIT30616 Certificate III in Hospitality program consists of a set number of important core units and a flexible selection of elective units. The electives are chosen via consultation with advice from our industry-expert trainers to student and the employer to tailor a specific program that suits the needs of the individual and the business.

Practical Skills

We ensure that you are trained with the fundamental skills needed to succeed, including customer service and teamwork; preparing and serving drinks at a bar and espresso coffee; RSA and RGS, serving wine and other beverages at tables; and providing reception/front desk, housekeeping and gaming services.

Employment Outcomes

- Bar Attendant
- Espresso Machine Operator
- Waiter
- Receptionist
- Gaming Attendant

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Delivery Mode</th>
<th>Location</th>
<th>Study Mode</th>
<th>Start Date</th>
<th>Duration</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Workplace Delivery</td>
<td>TAS</td>
<td>Full time, Part</td>
<td>Contact us</td>
<td>24 months</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>time</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

13 6963
megtinstitute.edu.au
Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is a process where a student may be granted credit or partial credit towards a qualification in recognition of skills and knowledge gained through work experience, life experience and/or formal training.

Entry requirements

No minimum education entry requirements. Students must complete a study skills assessment for basic literacy and numeracy. MEGT Institute require students enrolling in this workplace-based course to be employed in a hospitality environment performing a range of duties and are supervised and supported in the workplace.

Training and assessment methods

Students receive access to engaging, interactive course content, teamed with comprehensive support from our dedicated student services team and coaching and mentoring by a qualified MEGT Institute facilitator. A combination of assessment tasks including skills demonstration, written reports and question and discussion will be utilised for assessment. We also value the role of the workplace in the assessment process and ask supervisors to provide feedback on the students' abilities via an easy to complete third party report.

Fees and funding

For the latest information on our course fees please visit our website megtinstitute.edu.au/fees. There are different types of Government funding available to assist you when you are studying. These vary from state to state. Eligibility criteria apply.

This course may be eligible for National or State funding under the following schemes:

Skills Tasmania or TAS User Choice

This training program may be funded by Skills Tasmania.