Further your career in training and assessment

Our TAE50111 Diploma of Vocational Education and Training course aims to provide skills to deliver training and assessment services, or for those already working in the sector who want to expand their learning and professional development. This course can also develop skills for those who seek to have a role in leading other trainers and assessors in providing mentoring or advice.

Practical Skills

The TAE50111 Diploma of Vocational Education and Training provides you with the skills to deliver these services within Registered Training Organisations (RTO) or vocational education and training (VET) sectors. You will also gain an understanding of leading other trainers and assessors, and the skills to design approaches to learning and assessment strategies.

Employment Outcomes

- RTO trainer and assessor
- Education manager
- Training and assessment consultant
